ONLINE TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

COURSE: Writing Reports NIBRS Style

WHEN: August 24 8am-3pm Eastern Daylight Time

Accurate UCR/NIBRS reporting begins with excellent report writing.

- + Whether you are transitioning to NIBRS or already there, this practical and informative course will help your officers, FTO's, supervisors, and records personnel better understand crime reporting. Understanding NIBRS rules regarding how many reports to write, what needs to be in the report for accurate NIBRS coding, and the NIBRS definitions of crimes will help ensure your agency produces quality crime stat reports efficiently by minimizing report kickbacks for corrections.
- + Report writing scenarios will be discussed along with hands-on training in the supervisor review process. Writing good reports and producing accurate crime statistics is a team effort. This is an excellent "train-the-trainer" opportunity.
- + Please note that this course is specific to NIBRS reporting. If your agency is still submitting summary reports, this course will help you gain a better understanding of NIBRS requirements and prepare for the transition to NIBRS reporting.
